

Legislation Text

File #: 20-421, Version: 1

Agriculture Water Demand Model and Land Use Inventory Report and Agriculture Water Rate Considerations

The Regional Water Supply Commission recommends:

That staff be directed to maintain the current agricultural water rate for the 2021 budget year, and undertake an agricultural rate review that considers the current rate, rate model and rate application, the implications of these elements, and presents rate/rate model options for the Commission's consideration.